We would like to thank you for attending our information day.

The day was designed to provide some options and information to our participants on adventure travel. We sincerely hope that this day has been beneficial to you.

To help us evaluate the day, could you please answer these simple questions and return the form before your departure.

Again, we hope you have enjoyed the conference and hope the information provided was relevant for your needs.

We wish you good luck for the future.

1. Usefulness of the conference information? □ □ □ □ □
2. Refreshments? □ □ □ □ □
3. Conference schedule? □ □ □ □ □
4. Clarity of information about this day? □ □ □ □ □
5. Venue? □ □ □ □ □
6. Rate the information day overall? □ □ □ □ □
7. Workshops? □ □ □ □ □
8. Cocktail party? □ □ □ □ □
9. Organisation? □ □ □ □ □
10. What were the best features of this conference?

________________________________________________________________________

11. Were there any significant problems you encountered?

________________________________________________________________________

12. What improvements would you suggest?

________________________________________________________________________

13. Is there any presenter or organiser you would like to commend?

________________________________________________________________________

14. Further comments:

________________________________________________________________________