Planning to cut the lay

Plan how you will cut the lay by drawing arrows along where you would cut. Number each one so you can see where you start and where you end. This will be quite tricky because there are lots of different cuts to make.