The alterations will be done in-house by Orchid.

This option presents the opportunity to manufacture the items in the shortest time frame (within 2 days) and to monitor the quality of the items as they move through production.

As the alterations are uncomplicated, the manufacture of the replacement items will not interrupt other production that is going through the factory.